

Sinusoidal Obstruction Syndrome: On a Masson trichrome stain, the distinction between the original vein wall (stained blue) and the red colored strands of collagen within the vein lumen (V). In this section, the vessel lumen is almost completely occluded.