

Figure 3.11. Core and mat slice showing some structural features of Solar Lake mats, revealing the lamination within the mat and the finely rippled mat surface. This specimen was taken from the “deep flat mat” at approximately 1m deep. The core has a diameter of ca. 3.5 cm.